Therefore, the Company has nominated him as a candidate for Director.

Dear Shareholders,

The Japanese economy in 2026 was expected to maintain moderate growth, as steady domestic demand was bolstered by improvements in the income environment driven by wage hikes and government economic measures. However, the prolonged impact of the situation in the Middle East has gradually begun to affect the automobile industry. In particular, the sharp rise in crude oil prices not only has an impact on the production of accessories and parts but also raises concerns over a potential decline in vehicle usage.

In this environment, we will continue to provide our customers with safe and secure mobility life to fulfill our social responsibility as a "Mobility Lifestyle Infrastructure" company based on statutory safety inspection and maintenance services as well as vehicle sales. Furthermore, we are committed to achieving the goals for the final year of the Medium-term Business Plan.

■ Purpose

Ensuring the safety of our communities while driving and enriching customers' lives

■ Direction for the evolution of AUTOBACS SEVEN Co., Ltd.

Aim to provide "Mobility Lifestyle Infrastructure" for our customers on a global scale.

The Group's Purpose is to "ensure the safety of our communities while driving and enriching customers' lives." To that end, we are committed to solving various social challenges related to mobility, including automobiles. As the infrastructure supporting a mobility-oriented society, we aim to create a sustainable society where people and mobility coexist in harmony, while also pursuing the Group's own sustainable growth.

Our Group is currently making efforts to transition from a traditional one-stop service for automotive goods and services to a one-stop solution capable of addressing all mobility-related challenges. This strategic direction is outlined in our 2024 Medium-Term Business Plan, "Accelerating Towards Excellence," which was announced in 2024 under the strategic direction "Aim to provide "Mobility Lifestyle Infrastructure" for our customers on a global scale." The first step in this effort is to become a convenient maintenance hub that reduces the "inconveniences" for customers in their mobility needs.

In addition, as an "integrated mobility after-sales service provider" with a wide range of mobility-related capabilities, we are committed to evolving into a vital partner that can effectively address all mobility-related challenges. Our goal is to become a corporate group that plays a crucial role in supporting the "mobility lifestyle infrastructure," which is essential for society.

(ii) Business environment

The Japanese economy continued its moderate recovery, supported by a rebound in inbound tourism demand, improvements in the employment environment, and continued wage increases. However, the economic outlook remains uncertain due to prolonged inflation, sluggish consumer spending, and rising geopolitical risks.

In the mobility industry, although electrification continues to advance against the backdrop of decarbonization trends, the pace of electric vehicle (EV) adoption varies by region due to factors such as revisions to subsidy policies and delays in the development of charging infrastructure. In addition, the growing sophistication of vehicles equipped with advanced technologies, such as advanced driver-assistance systems (ADAS), enhances vehicle functionality and added value, while also requiring a higher level of expertise for maintenance.

Furthermore, driven by rising new vehicle prices due to inflation, demand for used vehicles is expanding and vehicle ownership periods are lengthening. As a result, demand for vehicle maintenance and after-sales services is expected to remain solid.

In addition, the diversification of customer values and purchasing behaviors is accelerating due to the expansion of vehicle ownership models and alternative mobility options, including micromobility. Moreover, a widening gap is emerging between price-oriented consumption driven by inflation and demand for added value such as expertise and customer experience, requiring businesses that provide merchandise and services to respond in a flexible and multifaceted manner.

Our Group will strive to accurately assess these environmental changes and enhance our competitiveness by advancing its merchandise and services and redefining the value we provide. At the same time, we will work to achieve sustainable growth and increase corporate value by responding flexibly and promptly to changes in customer needs.

According to figures released by the Auto-Parts & Accessories Retail Association (APARA), an organization to which the Company belongs, total store net sales of four association members between April 2025 and March 2026 were ¥435,796 million, an increase of 4.5% year on year. In addition, new vehicle sales*1 for the same period were approximately 4.53 million vehicles (a 0.9% decrease year on year), and the number of registered passenger used cars*2 for the same period was approximately 3.15 million vehicles (a 0.5% decrease year on year). Total automobile maintenance sales*3 in the market for the period from July 2024 through June 2025 were ¥6,659.2 billion (a 6.4% increase year on year), an increase for four consecutive years.

(iii) Targets to be addressed

In accordance with our long-term vision, "Beyond AUTOBACS Vision 2032," our Group is working to expand our business scale and enhance the value we provide, with the goal of achieving consolidated net sales of 500 billion yen in fiscal year 2032. This vision is not merely aimed at expanding the scale of our business; rather, it seeks to achieve sustainable growth in corporate value by addressing social challenges surrounding mobility. We are implementing various initiatives in accordance with our 2024 Medium-Term Business Plan, "Accelerating Towards Excellence," which we announced in May 2024. This plan involves both the expansion of our existing businesses and the development of new growth areas.

As we work toward achieving our long-term vision, the environment surrounding the Company continues to change at an unprecedented pace. To ensure that we meet the goals we have set for fiscal year 2032, it is essential that we view these environmental changes not as obstacles but as opportunities for growth. It is imperative that we continue to optimize our business portfolio and strengthen our competitiveness while accelerating our execution speed more than ever before.

First, we are addressing the need for more advanced technical expertise and equipment required for vehicle inspections and maintenance due to the increasing number of vehicles equipped with cutting-edge technology and electric vehicles (EVs). As enhancing service quality becomes imperative, our Group is prioritizing the implementation of diagnostic equipment and the enhancement of our personnel development and training programs, particularly for our maintenance technicians. Through these efforts, we are developing a maintenance system that ensures customers can rely on our services with confidence for years to come, regardless of the vehicle model.

Next, we are addressing the rising demand for used cars, driven primarily by soaring new car prices. Our Group views this growing demand for used cars as a core growth area. By strengthening business collaboration between AUTOBACS CARS and Otoron—both of which are engaged in vehicle sales—we are working to improve our vehicle procurement capabilities and ensure price competitiveness. Additionally, we have begun the process of recruiting new franchisees for AUTOBACS CARS in fiscal year 2025. Through the strategic expansion of our franchise network, we aim to establish touchpoints with a greater number of customers and expand our service coverage area.

In addition, we are addressing the growing demand for maintenance resulting from the increasing average age of vehicles. We are offering customers who visit our stores free safety inspections to ensure they can use their vehicles with peace of mind for many years to come. Our maintenance and replacement recommendations, based on the inspection results, are intended to facilitate planned and cost-effective maintenance tailored to the condition of each vehicle, while also generating ongoing demand for our services. Furthermore, we will continue to contribute to maintaining mobility infrastructure by strategically opening new stores in communities where automobiles are essential to daily life.

We are also implementing concrete measures to address the diversification of customer values and purchasing behaviors, as well as the widening gap in consumer preferences driven by rising inflation. To accommodate the growing diversity of transportation methods and ownership models, we are expanding our micro-mobility offerings as a new business domain, thereby broadening our operations beyond the traditional automotive sector. In addition, we are committed to providing our customers with competitive prices by expanding our private-brand and exclusive-brand product lines, as well as through multi-brand initiatives such as Otoron and BEE LINE. Conversely, for customers who prioritize added and experiential value, we are advancing our store development strategy by enhancing our expertise and proposal capabilities through initiatives such as the restructuring of Super AUTOBACS and the opening of specialty stores.

We are also focusing on strengthening our business foundation with the aim of enhancing our ability to adapt to changes in the business environment. In fiscal 2025, as part of the Group's strategic growth initiatives, we have been implementing measures to enhance supply chain management and operational reforms. We have integrated procurement functions at subsidiaries where they overlapped, thereby realizing product procurement that leverages economies of scale. Furthermore, we are executing investments during the 2024 Medium-Term Business Plan period at a rate that exceeds the initial plan. Regarding the planned 35 billion yen investment in capital allocation under this Medium-Term Business Plan, 97% of the 17 billion yen M&A investment plan has been completed, and 144% of the 18 billion yen capital expenditure plan has been executed. The investments executed to date are beginning to contribute to our business performance, and we are now transitioning into a phase where the effects of these investments can be quantified.

The Company has a long-standing reputation for providing one-stop shopping for automotive goods and services through our nationwide network of stores. However, the mobility challenges our customers face are becoming more complex and diverse than ever before. Therefore, moving forward, we aim to evolve into an "integrated mobility after-sales service provider" capable of resolving all mobility-related issues by organically integrating the functions and strengths of our entire Group to deliver one-stop solutions.

Moving forward, we will continue to accurately identify and respond to the ever-changing business environment and diversifying customer needs. As a social infrastructure that supports the mobility society, we will strive for further growth and enhanced corporate value. We are committed to our Purpose of "ensuring the safety of our communities while driving and enriching customers' lives."

(ii) Group's lines of business and management results by segment

a. Group's lines of business by segment (as of March 31, 2026)

In addition to the wholesale and retail of automotive products in Japan and overseas, the operation of online stores, automobile dealership operations, the sale of vehicles and the provision of vehicle inspections and maintenance services, our Group also leases store facilities to the AUTOBACS Group and operates credit-related businesses.

The Group's lines of business and the positioning of its segments are as follows.

Segment	Description of business
AUTOBACS Business	Wholesaling of automotive goods, including tires, wheels, and car electronics, to domestic franchisees. The Group also provides sales and installation services for automotive goods, statutory safety inspection and maintenance services, bodywork and painting services for cars, and vehicle sales to general consumers in Japan and overseas.
Consumer Business	As a retail business outside the AUTOBACS Business, we sell automotive goods—primarily tires—and vehicles to general consumers. We also provide automotive goods and other products through our website and official app, in coordination with our physical stores. Furthermore, we sell automotive goods to corporate customers, as well as specialized services such as statutory safety inspection and maintenance services, and bodywork services.
Wholesale Business	We mainly wholesale and export automotive goods to retailers, such as hardware stores in Japan and overseas. We also handle the wholesale of private-label products, including lifestyle brands.
Expansion Business	Primarily through our subsidiaries, we operate credit-related businesses, act as insurance agents, facilitate individual credit purchases, and issue affiliated credit cards for domestic franchisees. We also lease equipment to these franchisees. We also engage in real estate development and handle next-generation micro-mobility solutions, including specified small motorized bicycles.

■ AUTOBACS Business

In the AUTOBACS Business, net sales increased by 4.7% year on year to ¥206,363 million and segment profit increased by 1.6% year on year to ¥22,402 million.

Net sales for all store formats of the domestic AUTOBACS chain (including stores of franchisee corporations) increased by 2.2% year on year on a same store basis and increased by 3.3% year on year on a total store basis.

Domestic AUTOBACS chain store net sales and number of customers year on year on a same store basis

Net sales on a same store basis +2.2% year on year Number of customers -2.1% year on year

At AUTOBACS chain stores in Japan, tire sales performed well, driven by efforts to expand sales of exclusive tires and broaden the selection of high-value tires, and intensify TV commercials and online advertising promoting free safety inspections and tire sales. In addition, as the average age of vehicles continues to rise and the demand for vehicle maintenance increases, sales of maintenance items such as oil and batteries have remained stable. We have also enhanced the functionality of the pit work reservation system via our app and website, and we have expanded our range of oil sold by volume.

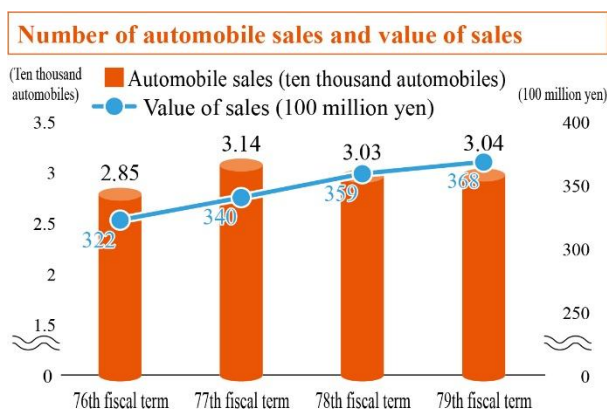

Conversely, due to a decline in new vehicle sales and the increasing sophistication of new car features, sales of car electronics—such as car navigation devices and dashboard cameras—as well as accessories such as in-car accessories and interior items remained weak.

As for statutory safety inspection and maintenance services, we issued announcements regarding the extension of the inspection period following regulatory revisions in April 2025 and conducted year-round promotional campaigns through media and social media. Consequently, the number of automobiles that underwent statutory safety inspection increased by 1.7% year on year to approximately 682,000, and net sales from statutory safety inspection and maintenance services rose by 6.0% year on year to ¥25,784 million.

In vehicle sales, new car and wholesale used car sales were sluggish. However, retail used car sales performed well, driven by increased trading of shared inventory within the Group through collaborations with other companies. Consequently, the total number of automobiles sold in the domestic AUTOBACS chain increased by 0.5% year on year to approximately 30,400 units, while total sales increased by 2.5% year on year to ¥36,858 million. We also strengthened our web-based sales initiatives, including the launch of the AUTOBACS CARS used car search site and the introduction of online reservations for in-store and on-site vehicle appraisal and purchase services.

Regarding store openings and closures in Japan, the total number of stores was recorded at 1,020 as of the end of March 2025. As of the end of March 2026, the total number of stores reached 1,059, with 41 new stores having been opened and 2 stores having been closed.

In overseas markets, in France, despite expanding the product lineup, including private brands, and improving productivity through the introduction of an automated ordering system, sales declined due to stagnant consumer spending caused by the economic downturn. In Singapore, sales increased due to strong performance in pit services, driven by increased demand for vehicle maintenance of existing vehicles due to soaring certificate of entitlement (COE) prices. In Malaysia, with the aim of strengthening the wholesale business, we withdrew from the operation of AUTOBACS licensed stores (4 stores) at the end of March 2026.

Regarding overseas store openings and closures, there were 5 new store openings and 4 store closures from 148 stores at the end of March 2025, bringing the total to 149 stores at the end of March 2026.

						(Unit: stores)
Taiwan	Singapore	Thailand	France	Malaysia	Philippines	Total

■ Consumer Business

In Consumer Business, we achieved significant growth in both sales and profits by making Otoron Co., Ltd. a consolidated subsidiary in August 2024, Tokatsu Holdings Co., Ltd. in October 2024, and BEE LINE Corporation in January 2025.

As a result, net sales of the Consumer Business increased by 80.3% year on year to ¥52,838 million and segment profit was ¥519 million (segment loss of ¥847 million in the previous fiscal term).

In the car dealership business, sales increased due to the opening of the Audi authorized dealer "Audi Oyama Store" and the introduction of new BYD models. Furthermore, in March 2026, we opened "BYD AUTO Ota Store," which boasts the largest number of display vehicles among all BYD authorized dealerships nationwide.

In the online store, sales increased due to the strong performance of our own e-commerce site, driven by an expanded product range, as well as the success of new third-party e-commerce marketplaces and marketing initiatives.

At Otoron, sales have increased due to the introduction of a 48-month installment payment plan through its own financing system, as well as the opening of four new stores, including "Otoron Nagoya Store."

BEE LINE has opened three stores, including "BEE LINE Onojo Store."

AUTO IN has increased its number of stores by 74 through the promotion of M&A. Furthermore, we are creating business synergies by shifting some products and maintenance equipment to our distribution channels.

In the Consumer Business, store openings and closures increased from 124 stores at the end of March 2025 to 203 stores at the end of March 2026, with 85 new stores opening and 6 stores closing.

■ Wholesale Business

In the Wholesale Business, net sales decreased by 5.7% year on year to ¥33,511 million and segment profit increased by 81.7% year on year to ¥941 million.

In Japan, wholesale sales of our private brand "AQ." to Seven-Eleven increased. Furthermore, our subsidiary that sells oil saw increased sales volume in addition to higher unit prices, resulting in solid performance. On the other hand, our subsidiary that manufactures and sells aluminum wheels experienced sluggish sales of wheels for winter tires. In April 2025, we transferred some of the product procurement and development operations previously handled by our oil sales subsidiary to the Company. This consolidation of organization and functions promoted operational efficiency and cost optimization, contributing to improved profitability.

In overseas markets, despite implementing various measures to strengthen relationships with existing business partners and acquire new customers, sales declined due to the decrease in exports from Japan. In China, sales grew as exports to Japan expanded through the promotion of new product development, and wholesale operations within China also commenced. In Australia, although consumer demand continued to weaken due to inflation and rising interest rates, sales of private-label products performed well.

■ Expansion Business

In the Expansion Business, net sales increased by 17.7% year on year to ¥10,716 million and segment profit grew by 60.6% year on year to ¥764 million.

In the Real Estate business, rental income increased due to new store openings and renovations, and the garage house rental business and businesses utilizing idle assets performed steadily.

In SX (Sustainability Transformation), sales increased due to the expansion of the product lineup of micro-mobility vehicles, such as specified small motorized bicycles.

(iv) Remuneration, etc. paid to directors

a. Directors' Remuneration Policy

The basic policy for determining directors' remuneration is to maintain and enhance the corporate value of the AUTOBACS Group and to secure capable personnel who can properly supervise business execution as directors.

b. Remuneration standard

The remuneration standard is based on the results of third-party surveys on executive compensation and takes into account such factors as the Company's position in the industry, the difficulty of achieving targets, and responsibilities. Prior to a resolution by the Board of Directors, the Corporate Governance Committee is consulted regarding the overall compensation system, including compensation levels and composition.

c. Composition and basic policy of remuneration

Remuneration for the Company's directors (excluding outside directors and directors who are audit and supervisory committee members) consists of monetary remuneration and stock remuneration both as fixed remuneration. The ratio of monetary remuneration to stock remuneration in fixed remuneration is 2 to 1 for the representative director and 7 to 3 for directors. For outside directors and directors who are audit and supervisory committee members, monetary remuneration as fixed remuneration set for each role is paid.

i. Fixed remuneration (monetary remuneration)

Determined based on the basic remuneration as a director and the remuneration for other delegated duties set according to individual roles.

ii. Fixed remuneration (stock remuneration)

Restricted stock, a mechanism to encourage long-term shareholding, is issued in advance at a face value set according to each individual role, with the aim of improving medium- to long-term performance and corporate value and further sharing value with shareholders.

Remuneration for directors mentioned above in charge of the execution of duties among the Company's directors (excluding outside directors and directors who are audit and supervisory committee members) consists of fixed remuneration (items i and ii above) for directors as well as of fixed remuneration (monetary remuneration), variable remuneration (monetary remuneration) and variable remuneration (stock remuneration) as types of remuneration for the execution of duties.

The percentages set for fixed remuneration (monetary remuneration), variable remuneration (monetary remuneration), and stock remuneration (fixed and variable remuneration) for the Company's directors are roughly 42%, 28%, and 30%, respectively, in the case of Representative Director & Chief Executive Officer. The percentage of variable remuneration will become higher in proportion to the ranks of executive directors.

iii. Fixed remuneration (monetary remuneration)

The scope of control and responsibility for the execution of duties, degree of influence on the management of the consolidated Group, and achievement in the previous year are considered to determine fixed remuneration from the remuneration table.

iv. Variable remuneration (monetary remuneration)

The achievement of a single-year consolidated operating profit target is set as a payment condition common to all eligible executive directors. The amount varies between 0 and 150% of the performance-based remuneration standard depending on the degree of achievement of the following targets: financial performance figures such as ordinary profit targets for all businesses and non-financial targets based on all ESG/SDGs KPIs.

v. Variable remuneration (stock remuneration)

To improve performance and corporate value over the medium and long term and better share value with shareholders, restricted stock (performance-based stock remuneration) is issued in advance linked with the achievement of single-year performance targets in the amount specified according to individuals' roles.

d. Process of determining remuneration

- i. Remuneration for the Company’s directors (excluding outside directors and directors who are audit and supervisory committee members) is determined at the Board of Directors’ meeting, within the limit of the amount of remuneration resolved in advance at a general meeting of shareholders, along with the remuneration system that ensures objectivity and transparency through consultation with the Corporate Governance Committee.
- ii. The remuneration for the execution of business by Directors is deliberated and resolved by the Board of Directors, following consultation with the Corporate Governance Committee regarding the remuneration policy and structure. With regard to individual remuneration, the Representative Director & Chief Executive Officer determines the specific amounts, given that he oversees all business operations and is in the best position to accurately assess each Director's performance and contributions.
- iii. The remuneration and other compensation payable to directors (excluding directors who are members of the audit and supervisory committee) are reviewed by the Audit and Supervisory Committee.
- iv. Remuneration for the directors who are audit and supervisory committee members is determined following deliberations by audit and supervisory committee members at a meeting of the Audit and Supervisory Committee within the limit of the amount of remuneration resolved in advance at a general meeting of shareholders.

e. Introduction of a medium- to long-term performance-linked remuneration system

With the objective of continuing to improve its corporate value and share value with shareholders in line with the medium- to long-term performance targets under its business strategies and the Medium-term Business Plan, the Company resolved to introduce a medium-to long-term performance-linked remuneration system for directors responsible for business execution among the Company’s directors (excluding outside directors and directors who are audit and supervisory committee members) with payment being based on achieving the operating profit target in the 2024 Medium-term Business Plan “Accelerating Towards Excellence.” Please note that no remuneration was paid under this system during the fiscal term under review.
